Technology Code of Ethics

Parent and Student must read and sign.

Computers and the Internet are the core elements of the Eaton's Virtual Academy. Students must use technology in a responsible manner. In order to ensure that all students and parents understand our policies, we ask that parents review the following Technology Code of Ethics with their children.

Technology Code of Ethics

1. It is Eaton Academy's policy that the Student shall not alter or attempt to alter the Company's website, student access portal, or any other element of the Company's online/Internet presence.
2. The Student is prohibited from making any unauthorized changes to the online curriculum, its programs, user names, and passwords.
3. The Student will not violate the copyright laws concerning computer software and the use of digital images, sounds or other data. The Student will not make or use illegal copies of software. The Student will be asked to provide bibliographic references when using digital information.
4. The Student will not attempt to learn or use any computer security passwords.
5. Both the Student and the Parent understand, acknowledge, and agree that the Student, and only the Student, will take part in the online curriculum; participate in the academic program of the Virtual Academy; and complete the assignments and tests of the Virtual Academy.
6. The consequences for violating the above policies are termination of enrollment and loss of all fees paid and all fees due the Company.

By reading the above statements and signing below, parents are giving their permission for their children to have access to Internet resources while enrolled in Eaton Academy programs. By reading the above statements and signing below, students are agreeing to abide by these guidelines.

Students are permitted to use the Internet only for educational purposes. Some material on the Internet may not be of educational value. Families need to be cognizant that some material obtained via the Internet may be controversial, offensive or inappropriate for children. Eaton Academy cannot be held responsible for any misuse of the Internet or of the Student's computer.

TERMS OF VIRTUAL ACADEMY SERVICES

1. Students must successfully complete all parts of courses taken in the Virtual Academy to receive credit.
2. In addition to the self-paced online curriculum, tutorial sessions are available for an additional fee of $65 per hour. Such sessions may be delivered through instant messages, an online chat system (e.g. Skype), or on the telephone. Advance scheduling is required for tutorial sessions.
3. Sessions begin at the agreed upon starting time. If you initiate a session late, you will have the time remaining in the hour for your session.
4. Payment for the tutorial sessions must be received before the sessions can commence.
5. The Student is required to complete a minimum enrollment of one (1) full Carnegie Unit or two (2) half Carnegie Units with Eaton Academy and to meet all Eaton Academy graduation requirements in order to be granted an Eaton Academy diploma.
6. Eaton Academy cannot be held responsible for failure to educate or for opinions pertaining to assessments.
7. If for any reason you are not satisfied with a tutor's performance, please contact Brian Uitvlugt or Marj Segal at Eaton Academy (770) 645-2673 immediately. Your concerns are of utmost importance to us, and we are happy to discuss any changes necessary to meet your needs.
8. Cancellations:
If you are unable to make a scheduled tutoring session, please contact your tutor so you are not charged for the session. If a tutor has not been notified 24 hours in advance, you will be charged for the session.

We look forward to guiding the successes this year for you and your child.
